Our Mission:- To Know Christ and To Make Christ Known.

Today's message is brought by

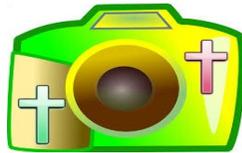

Rob Taylor

Today's Bible passage is:

Psalm 51

Sermon Snapshot: Heavenly Affections

In our Scripture text for today's message found in Colossians 3:1-4 we are challenged to set our affections on things above rather than on the things of this earth. Although we must never neglect our earthly responsibilities, it's very easy for we who are Christians to be so taken up with such earthly matters that we forget we're just passing through in this life to our eternal home with Christ in heaven. Remembering this fact will change our attitudes and actions right now.

Thought of the Week

2020 can be your year of opportunity. Why not start by dedicating yourself to reading God's Word each day. Reading plans are readily available online at no cost.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Teneishia Howard

23 January

Please take the time to wish Teneishia well for her special day personally, or by sending a card or a text, or making a phone call.

Prisoners are some of the most unreachable people in the world. They are shut away from the rest of society – often for good reasons – and made to pay for their crimes. All too often, prisoners never find true freedom, even after they are freed from their cell. The cycle of sin and condemnation is far too heavy to carry.

Through Bible League's prison ministry around the world, we have the incredible opportunity of reaching society's most unlovable, rejected and hardened people with the powerful and transformational Gospel message. We have seen so many lives turned around through our Project Philip Bible studies which are held within the prison walls.

INTERNATIONAL

This week we have received the latest news from Paul and Gerrah in the Philippines. Please continue to pray for them as they regroup after the recent tropical typhoon.
